

HRDF WELCOMES OUR NEW
CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD

DATO' NELSON RENGANATHAN

HRDF Welcomes Dato' Nelson Renganathan as its Chairman of the Board and Investment Panel Chairman

HRDF - HUMAN RESOURCES DEVELOPMENT FUND · WEDNESDAY, APRIL 1, 2020 · READING TIME: 1 MINUTE

The Human Resources Development Fund (HRDF or “the Fund”) is pleased to announce the appointment of Dato' Nelson Renganathan as the Fund's Chairman of the Board and Investment Panel Chairman; effective 1st April 2020.

Dato' Nelson is a trailblazer in the field of education in Malaysia and beyond. In his capacity as the Founder and Executive Chairman of Regent International Schools in Malaysia, Dato' Nelson has garnered over 25 years of experience in the education and training sectors.

Dato' Nelson's appointment in both these capacities will enable the Fund to leverage on his extensive experience in improving the efficiencies and effectiveness of the Fund's mandate towards catalyzing the development of a competent local workforce in line with Malaysia's aspiration of becoming a high-income and inclusive nation.

Dato' Nelson Renganathan said: “I look forward to effectively engaging with the Fund's key stakeholders which include the Ministry of Human Resources; its registered employers; the Fund's employees and Board of Directors; registered training providers; and others. These engagements will help the Fund to discover the point of consensus and shared motivation towards achieving its Vision, Mission and Objective.”

On behalf of HRDF, Dato' Nelson wishes to thank the outgoing Leadership for their services to the Fund.
